

HOLY WEEK 2020

Worship materials from

Pollokshields Church of Scotland

Each day in Holy Week we offer a reflection on a traditional reading from the story which takes us from Palm Sunday to the Cross and Tomb.

ITS DIFFERENT THIS YEAR — THOUGHTS FOR HOLY WEEK 2020

Everything is different this year. Since we cannot meet for worship or study groups we have prepared some reflections for Holy week in two different formats.

In one we build on the Art at Advent theme which Eddie had turned into a physical exploration of Lenten themes but which for Holy Week he has now created as pictures to reflect on as you think about the accompanying reading and prayer and accessible via YouTube

In the other I have built on our group discussion tactic where we often ask ourselves different questions of a familiar story. Thus for each day of Holy Week in “A Different Take” we look sideways at the edges of the Gospel story we know so well as we move through the story from Palm Sunday to Easter
